MEMORANDUM FOR: Associate Deputy Director for Administration

SUBJECT : H.R. 1244

REFERENCE : DD/A 75-1259

1. Pursuant to your request, the Office of Security has reviewed subject bill introduced by Representative Brooks.

2. The purpose of the bill should have no impact on the Office of Security. However, there is an implied "wrinkle" that could have an effect on the Central Intelligence Agency as a whole. In an era so dedicated to insuring that the Agency has no involvement in domestic activities, this bill seems to require all Federal departments and agencies to assist the U.S. Secret Service with personnel, equipment. . . pertaining to the protection of the President. No exception is made for the Agency or for limiting its assistance to times when the President is abroad.

3. Please advise if the Office of Security can be of further assistance in this matter.

1. [redacted] I talked to Robert Hill, Professional Assistant on the tax staff of the House Ways and Means Committee, about possible future action to lift the exemption of overseas allowances for Federal employees. He said that it was "not a burning issue" and he assured me that the Committee would not act upon this any sooner than late May. He said that the vehicle will probably be a comprehensive tax reform act, possibly H.R. 1040.

2. [redacted] In response to his call yesterday, I called Dr. Gary Thomas on the staff of the Office of Technology Assessment. The Office has been tasked with preparing a study on the information collected by the Federal government on raw material reserves, production, and conversion to finished products. The Office will then go to private industry and attempt to determine how much information is available, and then determine if there is a serious gap in the Government's knowledge in this field. In connection with the first part of this study Thomas inquired as to the types of information CIA collects on this subject. After checking with [redacted] OCI, and [redacted] DD/OER, I relayed to Thomas a general unclassified description of our sources, the type of information we collect, and the description of our reports. He seemed satisfied, but did say that the Office may want to request an interview with a CIA official in this field so that their record of investigation will look complete. I tried to discourage this, but told him to call me if the need arose.

3. [redacted] Called Scott Sklar in the office of Senator Jacob K. Javits (R., N. Y.) to clarify the office's request for information on CIA employment on behalf of the Lafayette High School in Brooklyn. Sklar said the office wanted not only the name and address of an Agency personnel representative, but also brochures on CIA employment. I arranged to deliver this material during the week.

4. [redacted] Delivered to the offices of Representatives Bob Wilson (R., Calif.), Charles C. Diggs, Jr., (D., Mich.), John Brademas (D., Ind.), John J. Flynt, Jr., (D., Ga.), and Millicent Fenwick (R., N. J.) FBIS items in which their names were mentioned.

5.. [redacted]) Called Mike Fasano, OMB, ✓ regarding their request for our comments on GSA's two draft bills to release certain materials from the national stockpile. OMB's requests were dated 12 and 26 February 1975. After checking with DDI and NIO/Econ, I informed Mr. Fasano that the Agency had no comments on either of these proposals. He said a written response would not be required. 25X1
